Fox 17 Drops Grit TV for Charge TV, Adds TBD TV

(Algona) Sinclair Broadcasting, owner of Fox 17, KDSM-Des Moines, has announced that it has dropped the affiliation with the Grit TV Network, and replaced it with Charge TV, effective February 28, 2017. Charge TV will feature MGM action films and shows like “James Bond”, “Rocky”, and “The Magnificent Seven”. AMU Cable TV Digital Basic customers can find Charge TV on channel 252, the same location Grit was located. AMU Cable TV Basic and Expanded Basic customers that have digital TVs with QAM tuners can find Charge TV on channel 112.3.

Sinclair Broadcasting also added another TV network to its multiplex signals on February 28th. Sinclair officials said TBD TV has shows featuring culinary skills, action, fitness, pranks, gaming, and music. AMU Cable TV Digital Basic customers can find TBD TV on channel 253. AMU Cable TV Basic and Expanded Basic customers that have digital TVs with QAM tuners can find Charge TV on channel 111.3.

KDSM is broadcasting the signals for Charge TV and TBD TV in standard definition.

AMU Cable TV Basic and Expanded Basic customers that have digital TVs with QAM tuners may have to auto scan their TVs to allow them to tune into Charge TV and TBD TV.
